

ADMISSION TO A PROGRAM

Qualified students are admitted to a major when they are accepted into the University. Students who are suitably qualified but undecided about their selection of a major may matriculate into the Undecided Program (UDC). A student who has attained 45 credit hours must be accepted into a major program or may be subject to dismissal from the University.